

What is the Thinker Thinking?

French sculptor Auguste Rodin worked on his masterpiece The Gates of Hell for over thirty years without ever completing it. Inspired by Dante's Inferno, Rodin sculpted all sorts of sinners and intended the Thinker to be the pinnacle of his Gates, gazing without hope into the pit of Hell.

Wow. That's deep.

Nowadays, society tends to see the Thinker not as a person mourning for mankind's eternal soul, but as a symbol of man's resourcefulness and ingenuity. Given time to think about a problem, man (and woman!) can conquer any problem.
